WITHHOLDING NOTICE AND ELECTION

Form W-4P/OMB no. 1545-0074

Notice

Dept. of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service

Distributions you receive from your IRA are considered nonperiodic payments, payable on demand, and are subject to Federal income tax withholding unless you waive withholding.

You may waive withholding on your IRA distribution by indicating your election to waive, signing and dating the IRS Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, or this substitute Form W-4P, and returning it to the IRA Trustee or Custodian listed above.

If you waive withholding or if you do not have enough Federal income tax withheld from your IRA distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. For more information on tax withholding and estimated tax, see IRS Publication 505. You may waive state income tax withholding to the extent permitted by law. You are responsible for determining and paying all Federal, and if applicable, state and local taxes on distributions made to you.

If you do not waive withholding on nonperiodic distributions, ten percent will be withheld from the IRA distribution. Your election is valid until you revoke it. You may change your withholding election by completing another Form W-4P or substitute.

If you are a U.S. citizen or resident alien receiving an IRA distribution that is delivered outside the United States or its possessions, withholding is required.

If you are a non-resident alien you may not use Form W-4P to withhold income tax or to waive withholding. A foreign person should refer to IRS Publication 515 and to Form W-8BEN. By January 31 of next year, you will receive a Form 1099-R showing the total amount of your IRA distribution and the total Federal income tax withheld during the year. If you are a non-resident alien who provided the IRA Trustee or Custodian listed above with Form W-8BEN, you will instead be furnished with a Form 1042-S by March 15 of next year.

Election

Unless a previous withholding election is in place, you indicate a different withholding amount below, or you waive withholding by indicating your election below, ten percent will be withheld from your IRA distribution.
